Pains [labour] Labor, 3. industria, 1. opera; opus, èris.

¶ You may do it without any great pains, id nullo negotio facere potes. That affair cost him much pains and trouble, id multo sudore ac labore fecit; multum laboris in eà re posuit. We must take the more pains, eo magis est nobis laborandum. He took a great deal of pains in instructing him, illum summo cum labore erudit. What a vast deal of pains have you taken in that affair? quid laboris in eam rem infumpsisti? This is all I have for my pains, hoc pretium ob stultitiam fero. They are moved with less pains, minore conatu moventur. That cannot be accomplished without great pains, id fieri, nisi difficulter, non potest. There is no occasion of any great pains to persuade me to that, haud difficulter id persuasum mihi erit. Habitual vices require great pains to get rid of them, inveterata vitia aegre depelluntur.
